

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) is undertaking exciting changes to the information it will report to educator preparation programs (EPPs) and provide to the public. TEA is working with Educate Texas and other external entities to solicit input and recommendations regarding EPP data from a wide variety of stakeholders throughout the fall and winter of 2017 to meet the requirements of Senate Bill 1839 and to continue to build upon recent work to compile and report data through the Accountability System for Educator Preparation Programs (ASEP) Annual Report. We welcome your input on the data TEA could provide to EPPs to help programs assess their impact, improve their design, and increase their effectiveness.

Please join us at one of the public stakeholder meetings listed below and RSVP for the appropriate event. The interactive meetings will gather input from stakeholders who are informed on the data that EPPs collect, submit, and analyze. EPPs are encouraged to bring members of their advisory committees to one of the public stakeholder meetings so that we can receive input from public schools, private schools, education service centers, institutions of higher education, and/or business and community interests. After engaging with stakeholders through the fall and winter of 2017, the feedback will be summarized and shared with the State Board for Educator Certification to inform future data collection and sharing.
