

Texas Association of Secondary School Principals

AWARDS/RECOGNITION

Frank R. Kemerer Award

PURPOSE

The purpose of this award is to recognize an outstanding social studies teacher at the high school level. The award is named for Dr. Frank Kemerer, a longtime professor in the Education Department at the University of North Texas. Dr. Kemerer's teaching and writing consistently displayed a level of scholarship and professionalism that set a high standard for his students, many of whom now serve as teachers or administrators in Texas public schools.

Frank Kemerer's expertise covers a broad range of subjects, including education, law, and public policy. Besides serving as a Regents Professor at UNT, he is the author or co-author of numerous books, including The Educator's Guide to Texas School Law and the Documentation Handbook.

CRITERIA

Nominees for the Frank R. Kemerer Award must have at least five years of teaching experience in social studies at the high school level and are currently teaching in a Texas public high school. They must be nominated by their high school principal and endorsed by the superintendent. Nominees should display enthusiasm for teaching, creativity, as well as effectiveness as measured by student achievements. An ability to teach effectively to various levels of students, from basic class to advanced placement, will be valued. In addition, nominees should be an integral part of the life and culture of the school as evidenced by involvement in student curricular and/or extracurricular activities.

PROCESS

Download and complete the Frank Kemerer Award application available on the TASSP website. Once completed, upload the application using the link on the Frank Kemerer Awards webpage. The TASSP Principal Image Committee, in collaboration with TASSP and ED311 staff, will review and screen nominees. The award recipient will be announced at the annual ED311 Education Law for Principals Conference in June.

Deadline for Applications: April 1, 2027
